"Wow, it was simply extraordinary! I read his ad and reviews posted before I book with him. After talking with JD on the phone, I went for 105 minutes session. Before he began, he explained what lomilomi is and how his session will be. At that point I didn't have any idea how wonderful the session would be. It was a multidimensional experience! Everything about his work from ambiance, techniques, spirituality and sensations... it felt I was on a journey in my dream yet it was still real. just magical! I highly recommend JD to anyone that is looking for superb bodywork and fantastic experience!" November 3, 2011

It was amazing bodywork ... the rituals, Hawaiian music, unique techniques .. It was tender and intense at the same time. I definitely recommend all to try JD!*

It gets better each time it seems to me though. His work is a lot of many things. The best of all, it feels as you are caressed in this tender, warm yet intense "love" he told me..that's aloha..unconditional love. I always feel all my stress and anxieties released inside out leaving with such clarity on many levels from body, mind to hear. I haven't found anything like his lomilomi till I met JD. I highly recommend JD to anyone that want extraordinary experiences!!"
